

Application for the Sonoma Clean Power Authority Community Advisory Committee

SCP actively works to provide an inclusive work environment, where people of different ethnicities, national origins, native languages, races, skin colors, sexes, genders and gender identities, sexual orientations, ages, physical and mental abilities, genetics and ancestry, politics, religion, financial wealth and education feel welcome, safe and invited to fully participate at every level. SCP further seeks to contribute to a more inclusive and equitable society through our actions, our communication, our policies, and our investments. SCP expects all of its employees to contribute to these goals.
